

Teaching Artist for After School Art K-4 Program

The Glen Arbor Arts Center [GAAC] seeks a dynamic, creative Teaching Artist for its Fall 2019 and Winter 2020 After School Art program. There are three sessions:

- November 5 - December 10, 2019
- January 7 - February 11, 2020
- February 25 - April 14, 2020 [No classes over Spring break]

The Teaching Artist is responsible for developing and teaching art classes for children in grades K - 4 on Tuesdays from 4 - 5:30 pm. Teaching Artist responsibilities include:

- Planning class sequence and structure and working closely with the Program Manager to plan quality, process-oriented art projects in drawing, painting, printmaking, sculpture, and more. The classes focus on technique, exposure to different media and most importantly FUN!
- Studio preparation, materials management, set up and clean up.
- Works in six-week blocks, from 4 - 5:30 pm on Tuesdays.

Qualifications

- Two or more years of successful experience working with elementary-age children in an art setting.
- Familiarity with and sensitivity to the developmental needs of children, including learning styles, age-appropriateness of curriculum, and positive classroom management.
- Bachelors' degree in Arts Education or a BFA preferred.

Compensation

The Teaching Artist position pays $75/class.

All interested inquiries should be directed to GAAC Education Coordinator Melissa Johnson: jobs@glenarborart.org

Please provide a resume of your experience and references.